

IEEE Signal Processing Society
Sustained Impact Paper Award

The IEEE Signal Processing Society Sustained Impact Paper Award shall honor the author(s) of a journal article of broad interest that has had sustained impact over many years on a subject related to the Society's technical scope.

2016	Zhou Wang, Alan Conrad Bovik, Hamid Rahim Sheikh and Eero P. Simoncelli , for the paper entitled, Image Quality Assessment: From Error Visibility to Structural Similarity, IEEE Transactions on Image Processing , Volume 13, No. 4, April 2004.
2015	Ingemar J. Cox, Joe Kilian, F. Thomson Leighton and Talal Shamoan , for the paper entitled, Secure Spread Spectrum Watermarking for Multimedia, IEEE Transactions on Image Processing , Volume 6, Number 12, December 1997.
2014	Stephane G. Mallat and Zhifeng Zhang , for the paper entitled, Matching Pursuits With Time-Frequency Dictionaries, IEEE Transactions on Signal Processing , Volume 41, Number 12, December 1993.